

World Geography
5 Credits

I. Course Description

This course presents a physical-cultural study of the earth and mankind from a conservative, Christian perspective. Students will learn about the topography and political divisions of the continents, they will discover the variety of cultures around the world today.

II. Instructional Materials

World Geography in Christian Perspective, published by A Beka 1998

World Geography Map Studies, A Beka 1998

III. Goals and Objectives

1. Identify the earth as God's gift to man
2. Identify culture, governments, and economic systems, as apart of God's special creation
3. Examine the geographers craft of maps, statistics, charts and graphs
4. Identify and list Asian nations and peoples
5. Identify and list European nations and peoples
6. Identify and list African nations and people
7. Identify and list the Australian peoples and nation
8. Describe the Pacific nations and peoples
9. Define and describe Antarctica
10. Identify and list the North American countries and peoples
11. Identify and describe the South American peoples and nations
12. Analyze latitude and longitude

IV. Course Outline Second and Only Semester

1. Recognize the major continents and countries of the world
2. Analyze the diversity of people groups around the world
3. Discuss God's love for the nations of the world
4. Identify heroes of the mission field
5. Examine the wonders of the world

V. Teaching Methods

1. Daily lessons from text and activities
2. Daily video instruction
3. Parent/Student interaction/conversation

VI. Evaluation

1. Components:

- A) Quizzes and Tests
- B) Final Exam

2. Grading:

- | | | |
|----|--------|---|
| A. | 90-100 | A |
| B. | 80-89 | B |
| C. | 70-79 | C |
| D. | 60-69 | D |